

NAEPSDP First Time Conference Attendee Award

The NAEPSDP First Time Conference Attendee award is given to eligible individual(s) who will be attending the NAEPSDP Annual Conference for the first time. This award is intended to promote membership in NAEPSDP and participation at the annual conference.

The award will cover the entire registration fee for the conference (approximately $400). The number of awards given each year will depend on the amount of funds available.

Eligibility

1. A first time conference attendee.
2. Current Active or Student member – Membership dues for the calendar year in which the conference takes place must be paid prior to submitting the application.
3. Registered for the conference – Applicants must be registered for the conference. The registration fee will be reimbursed upon receiving the award.

Application Process

Please submit your application by August 31 via email attachment to Joe Hunnings, Chair, NAEPSDP Awards Committee (hunnings@vt.edu). The award winners will be announced by October 1.

1. Name
2. Your Institution
3. Position
4. Email address
5. Phone number
6. Brief explanation (maximum of 300 words) of why you are attending the conference